Dear Friends,

The set Gospel for the Second Sunday of Epiphany tells the story of ‘the first of the signs that Jesus did and manifested forth his glory’; the transformation of water into wine at the wedding at Cana (John 2:1-11). I love this miracle, though John doesn’t call it a miracle, he rightly calls it a sign. It is a sign that points to so many profound and liberating things about the God whom Jesus reveals to us; His delight in and concern for our own personal life and loves, attested by His presence at the wedding feast, His abundant generosity in more than meeting our needs in the midst of everyday life, His call to us to move from the mere outward purity, symbolised by the water for ritual washing, to a transformation of inward joy, symbolised by the wine. But most importantly, this sign points to the gift of His very self, His own heart’s blood, given once for all on the cross and received by us in the sacrament of Holy Communion.

I wonder though, if in the cold January light, it feels as if in some way we can see and name situations in which we “have no wine” and places in which “the wine gave out.” We may see it happening in our lives, our institutions, our country, and our world. Yet, we know that when we feel like the wine has given out, we are invited to drink of the cup which overflows, the life-giving chalice of salvation, given to us in Jesus.

“My only regret in life is that I didn’t drink more wine.”
- Ernest Hemingway

Epiphany at Cana by Malcolm Guite

*Here’s an epiphany to have and hold,
A truth that you can taste upon the tongue,
No distant shrines and canopies of gold
Or ladders to be clambered rung by rung,
But here and now, amidst your daily living,
Where you can taste and touch and feel and see,
The spring of love, the fount of all forgiving,
Flows when you need it, rich, abundant, free.*

*Better than waters of some outer weeping,
That leave you still with all your hidden sin,
Here is a vintage richer for the keeping
That works its transformation from within.
‘What price?’ you ask me, as we raise the glass,
‘It cost our Saviour everything he has.’*

With prayers and blessings from the Richmond clergy team,
Anne, Charlie and Joe

So, we will enjoy two joint services together in February:

2nd February, 10:30am, Candlemas at St Mary Magdalene's.

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity – Ecumenical Service 2025

Sunday 26 January, 6:30pm

Raleigh Road United Church

Taizé service of music and prayer

All are welcome to come to this ecumenical service on the theme "Do you believe this?" (John 11:26) and marking the 1700th anniversary of the Council of Nicaea.

There will also be an opportunity after the service for fellowship and developing bonds of friendship among the people of God! We hope to see you there.

Please note that there will be no service of Evensong at St Mary's on 26th January, so that all are free to attend the ecumenical service.

Repairs Update at St Mary Magdalene

Good news! And not so good news! The good news is that the Chancellor has given the go-ahead for the repairs to be carried out to the damaged beam in the Nave at St Mary's, which is currently shrouded in scaffolding. However, this was subject to approval of the scheme of works by Richmond Council and Heritage England. The Council have given their approval, but, and here is the not so good news, Heritage England have objected. Meetings will be held shortly between structural engineers to hopefully agree how the repair should be carried out and with what materials, but unfortunately this will lead to a delay to the start of the works.

Holocaust Memorial Day

Richmond Synagogue and Richmond Council proudly invite you to their Holocaust Memorial Day event at 7pm on Sunday 26 January 2025 at Richmond Synagogue, Lichfield Gardens, TW9 1AP. Please register early to be assured of a seat - <https://myus.theus.org.uk/events/117018/annual-holocaust-memorial-day-2025/>

The doors will be open 6.45pm for a 7pm start. The event concludes at 9pm, followed by refreshments and conversation. Please note that the small car park is open only to blue badge holders, but there is plenty of street parking available near to the Synagogue and a car park in Paradise Road.

Giving, one off, regular and planned

At the end of each service you will find a plate at the back of church for your cash offering. Gift aid envelopes are available if you are a UK taxpayer. You can also give by using the card machine. If you can, would you consider making a regular gift to the Richmond Team, for the upkeep of our churches and the work of the Team?

Last year we introduced the Parish Giving Scheme (PGS). Many thanks to those of you have joined the scheme. If you are still making regular donations by standing order, envelope or GiveALittle, please do switch to PGS if you are able to. This will help us enormously by reducing the amount of administration and significantly improving our cashflow. If you have any questions, please contact Jackie Harrison or 07747 111525.
