

Thursday 6 February 2025

Dear Friends,

Our reading for this coming Sunday's gospel is the calling of the disciples from Luke's gospel (Luke 5.1-11). In the calling of the first disciples, we are invited into a journey of radical transformation. The disciples are not called because of their perfection, their status, or their worthiness. They are called because of Jesus' love and the invitation to join in the mission of God. The challenge for us, as modern disciples, is the same. Jesus calls us to follow Him, often in the midst of our everyday struggles, to trust in His authority, and to let go of what we think we need in order to follow His lead. The invitation is not just to be part of a religious group - it is to be a part of something much bigger, a mission to bring God's kingdom to earth. Just as Jesus did not come to heal only the body but also the soul, He calls us to follow Him not just for personal salvation but to be part of His redemptive work in the world. The call to discipleship is a call to be "fishers of people" to share the love and hope of the gospel with others, to heal, restore, and reconcile the brokenness of the world.

Jesus' call to the first disciples is both a moment of awe and an invitation into deep waters. It challenges us to go beyond our comfort zones, to obey when things appear to not make sense, and to trust in His power even when we are uncertain. But ultimately, it is a call to follow Him in the most profound way possible—a way that transforms our hearts, our lives, and the world around us.

The Call of the Disciples by Malcolm Guite

*He calls us all to step aboard his ship,
Take the adventure on this morning's wing,
Raise sail with him, launch out into the deep,
Whatever storms or floods are threatening.
If faith gives way to doubt, or love to fear,
Then, as on Galilee, we'll rouse the Lord,
For he is always with us and will hear
And make our peace with his creative Word,
Who made us, loved us, formed us and has set
All his beloved lovers in an ark;
Borne upwards by his Spirit, we will float
Above the rising waves, the falling dark,
As fellow pilgrims, driven towards that haven,
Where all will be redeemed, fulfilled, forgiven.*

With prayers and blessings from the Richmond clergy team,
Anne, Charlie and Joe

NEW: Appointment process for new RTM Team Rector and Vicar of SMM

A. Update on RTM “Conversations”

Summary of First Congregational Conversation regarding the role and qualities for the RTM Team Rector, Vicar of St Mary Magdalene. 2nd February. Following RTM Team Service for Candlemass.

Introduction.

Assistant Churchwarden at SMM Bleddyn Phillips spoke to the congregation to explain the process by which those attending all three churches could have an input into developing the role profile to be used for the new Richmond Team Ministry Team Rector and vicar of St Mary Magdalene.

The role and qualities.

Bleddyn explained that there would be a series of meetings – “conversations” - organised in each of the churches in the coming months at which people could freely express their thoughts and feelings about the qualities needed in the role of the team rector/vicar of SMM and the priorities they think a successful candidate should focus on. The Archdeacon would be liaising closely with the parish in the process of developing and agreeing the profile.

For those who preferred to make their thoughts known on an anonymous basis, there would be a box placed at the rear of each church in which people could place written messages (see also section B below).

Bleddyn explained that for each church, there were already in place “conversation coordinators” for people to approach and make any comments. For St Matthias, these were the churchwardens, Sally Gill and Alison Hall; for St John's, Cathie Kozeluh and at St Mary's, Bleddyn Phillips and David Powell.

Bleddyn also said that after the initial shortlist of candidates was made, each would spend a day in Richmond as part of the selection process. This would also enable the candidates to better understand the Team and the multifaceted nature of this role.

Timing of the Appointment.

On the question of the timing of the appointment, Churchwarden John Buckingham explained that besides the parish profile this depended on finding a new vicarage. The vacancy could not be advertised until the sale of the existing vicarage had taken place and a new one identified with the purchase well underway. The vicarage needed to be no more than 15 minutes' walk from SMM. This meant that the post would likely not be advertised until around September 2025. In response to a question why the post could not be advertised until then, John explained that it was very difficult to find candidates willing to apply for the position unless they knew where they would be living.

Ruth Martin was asked to contribute to the discussion due to her experience in the Diocese. She explained that the process of finding an estate agent able to handle both the sale and purchase of the vicarage was underway and that in her experience, it had proved most efficient where one agent had handled both the sale and the purchase. In those circumstances, the gap between selling the vicarage and purchasing a new one can be as short as 3-4 months. It was not possible for the diocese to purchase a new vicarage before the current one had been sold. Ruth also explained that vicarages today are the vicar's private homes for them and their households.

John explained that the SMM office, currently housed in the vicarage basement, was moving to St Matthias, pending the redevelopment of the parish rooms. This work on the parish rooms was currently out to tender and was expected to begin in April 2025, with an expected completion date of April 2026. The parish office would then move from St Matthias to the Parish rooms. The administrative team in the office were well advanced in their planning.

Other questions and comments.

Judy Wright and Mary Ricketts both spoke and emphasised the importance of everyone working on the profile as collaboratively as possible. The importance of drawing up a 'job spec' was identified by several present as being critical in helping people understand the role and what might be required to fulfil it. [NOTE: this will be followed up asap]

Bleddyn thanked everyone for attending and reminded everyone that this was the first of the conversations and that there would be opportunities in each of the churches to contribute and, on behalf of the churchwardens, he hoped as many people as possible would do so. The congregation thanked Bleddyn.

B. 'Conversation Boxes'

To assist in the gathering of as much information as possible from as many parishioners as possible, the following message will be placed next to the Conversation/Suggestion Boxes placed at the rear of each church:

“The suggestion boxes are here placed to encourage people to offer any comments or suggestions they may wish to make regarding the qualities, profile and priorities we as a parish might wish to be mindful of in appointing our new Team Rector and Vicar of St Mary Magdalene.

People are also encouraged to place any questions or points of clarification they may wish to make regarding the process behind such appointment. These will then be collected from all three churches with the aim of drawing together common themes and ideas to help facilitate the appointment.

To assist people in this, updates will be provided in the weekly newsletter which hopefully will help guide people in their thoughts and comment.”

NEW: Prayer needs

Sometimes things seem overwhelming. St Paul encourages us to offer everything to God in prayer. If you would like us to offer prayers for you or a loved one, the St Mary Magdalene prayer group meets regularly to pray in complete confidence over prayers requests made known to us, so please be assured that all your requests will be offered to God in prayer. A new email address has been set up where you are welcome to send any specific prayer needs that you would like us to hold in prayer. The email address is: richmondprayer.request@gmail.com. Please feel free to send prayer requests to that address, or you can post a request anonymously on the prayer board at the back of St Mary Magdalene. In addition, during the 9.30am service at St Mary Magdalene on the 2nd Sunday of each month there is the opportunity, if you wish, to receive laying on of hands and to be prayed over individually by a member of the team. And, of course, you are more than welcome to contact Joe, Anne, Charlie, Ruth Martin or Sue Eastaugh if you would like to talk to someone in confidence or to receive a home visit. If you are feeling lonely, lost or overwhelmed, please do reach out to us.

NEW: Free Concert, Sunday 9 February

A free concert at 3pm entitled 'Song of Songs' including work by Palestrina, at St Elizabeth of Portugal Church, in The Vineyard, Richmond.

NEW: Re-Imagine Church - Tuesday 11 Feb 7-8:15pm
