

Thursday 4 September 2025

Dear Friends,

There has been great excitement in Richmond this week with the arrival of a film crew on the Green, with actors Hannah Waddingham and Jason Sudeikis spotted in Golden Court and outside the Princes Head pub. For fans of the popular TV show Ted Lasso, the filming of a new season can't come soon enough, and I for one am looking forward to catching up with the much-loved fictional football coach and his feel-good, inspirational style of leadership. If you haven't watched Ted Lasso yet then I can highly recommend it as a great mood lifter. Ted's values are those we see in Christ: generosity of spirit, compassion, the ability to raise up the down-hearted, to see the best in people even when everyone else has given up on them, and his desire to enable the people around him to be the best they can be, to believe in themselves and each other. He builds a Team through love and trust, where the past is left behind and the future is built with hope, tenacity and courage. There are lots of Ted 'sayings' printed on the mugs for sale in the fan shop in Golden Court, but one of my favourite is, 'Be a Goldfish', in other words leave the past behind and start each day as you mean to go on (goldfish have a 10 second memory – which is why, according to Ted, they are the happiest creatures on earth!). Another saying, worth a mention when life is proving to be a bit tricky, and when we inevitably face the challenges which come with everyday ministry: "taking on a challenge is a lot like riding a horse, isn't it? If you're comfortable while doing it, you're probably doing it wrong."

So, if you are in need of some light-hearted, joy-filled TV which has the ability to lift your spirits and you have half an hour spare to sit on the sofa with a mug of tea (if you watch one episode at a time that is, and are not tempted, like me, to binge watch!) and would value a few moments of Christ-like inspiration from an unexpected quarter, then I'd say give Ted Lasso a go. You won't be disappointed. And if you see Jason Sudeikis or Hannah Waddingham outside the Princes Head pub, then please say hi from me, a goldfish in training!

With prayers and blessings from the Richmond clergy team,
Anne, Charlie and Joe

Q&A: What happens at St Mary Magdalene now?

After the 9:30am service on Sunday 7 September, the congregation at SMM are going to have a meeting to discuss how the vacancy will continue after Charlie leaves at the end of September. An informative meeting, led by Anthony Bell, will take place during coffee, and there will be plenty of time for questions.

Rest assured, though, that things are in hand and that SMM will be well cared for.

Treasurer for Richmond Team Ministry

We are seeking to appoint a new Treasurer for Richmond Team Ministry.

Ruth Martin has kindly been covering this role as the interim Treasurer for the last six months, whilst we seek to appoint a new permanent Treasurer, for which we are all very grateful.

We are asking you to consider whether you, or someone you know, could be called to take on this important voluntary role. This person will ideally be a worshipper in one of our churches and have an understanding of the Church's mission and ministry.

The Treasurer role includes being a PCC Trustee, chairing the Property and Finance Committee and attending other evening meetings including PCC and Standing Committee. As a parish we have both investments and property holdings, so we are looking for an experienced financial specialist, who is able to advise the team strategically.

The Treasurer will also present our annual financial accounts to the Team and be responsible for signing off the annual financial statements for the Charity Commission. The Team already benefits from an independent accountant, who also completes the bookkeeping, so the Treasurer has fewer day to day duties, but will be an authorised signatory for financial expenditure.

We are looking for someone who combines financial experience with good interpersonal skills and a desire to be Christ-centred and outward-focused.

Please do contact the clergy or your Churchwardens with any questions, or to express an interest.

Sunday 7 September at 15:30: Eco Church talk at St Mary's, followed by Creationtide Evensong

The RTM PCC has agreed that each church should join the Rocha Eco Church Scheme and work towards its goals as part of each church's Mission Action Plan. The RTM Green Team was formed to help our churches and congregations on our sustainability journey, and each church has achieved its Bronze Eco Church Award.

The RTM Green Team is pleased to confirm Helen Stephens, Church Relations Manager at A Rocha UK/Eco Church, will be giving a talk to RTM on the afternoon of Sunday 7 September, at St Mary's, followed by a Creationtide themed Evensong. Helen will be speaking 15:30-16:45, which will include a Q&A, followed by tea and cake. Evensong will begin at 18:30.

Helen will be sharing thoughts and tips on how we can progress on our path to the silver Eco Church award and how we can work together as a Team in caring for God's creation around us. We look forward to seeing you all on 7 September.

Alpha is Coming to the Richmond Team Ministry – Get Involved!

We're excited to announce that a Team Alpha Course will be running on Monday evenings from 22nd September 2025 at St John the Divine. Alpha will run for 10 weeks starting at 7pm and over by 9:15pm. We will break for a week on 27th October, so no Alpha that week.

Alpha is a relaxed and welcoming course that creates space for people to explore life, faith, and meaning. It's especially aimed at those who are new to church, curious about Christianity, or just asking life's big questions. Each session involves a simple meal, a short film, and open, honest discussion in small groups.

There are many ways you can be part of this:

- Pray regularly for the course, for those leading and attending.
- Invite friends, neighbours, and colleagues who might be interested.
- Serve by helping to prepare and serve the meals.
- Set up or pack away the space before and after sessions.
- Facilitate or support a small group discussion.

Whether you've done Alpha before or are completely new to it, we'd love your help in making it a welcoming and fruitful time for all involved.

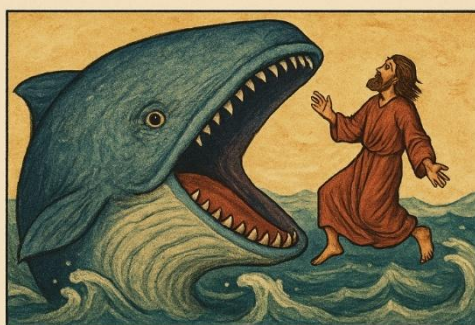

To offer help, register interest, or find out more, please speak to/email Joe at St John's or contact the Parish Office.

Mystery Players – an opportunity

Small theatre group called 'The Players of St Peter', who perform medieval mystery plays (a centuries-old form of theatre which combine biblical dramatisations with comic farce) are looking for more players. They perform in early December at St Saviour's near Hampstead, and if you would like to help, whether that's acting or behind the scenes they'd be very glad of new blood. Particularly, they're looking for a young actress to play the role of Mary, who has quite a bit of impressive Latin to deliver! An audition is on Thursday the 28th of August, but the director is happy to look at another day if necessary. Here is a link with all the relevant information, plus audition excerpts, or speak to Tim from the 6:30pm, St Mary's Evensong congregation.

Beam Work St Mary Magdalene

The work is progressing well. Please expect some planned weekday closures over the next few weeks to safely facilitate a new phase of these works. There will be a barrier placed at the main entrance indicating that we are temporarily closed for safety reasons.

The builders have our permission to close the church at any time that they feel there is a safety issue so please follow their instructions. Please avoid cordoned off areas.

We will continue to update you via this Newsletter as best we can over the coming weeks.

The Church will be open on Saturday and for all Sunday Services.

ZERO WASTE WEEK - first week of September

Leftover foreign currency, out of circulation coins from here, there and everywhere...

We all have coins and notes lurking in the back of drawers, in envelopes beneath your passports, in a spare purse and so on. Will we be going back to China? Do I need those old Lira?! Probably not - so let's have a clear out and bring all our unwanted and outdated currency to church the first two weeks of September. There will be collecting boxes in all three churches. We will then donate the collection to Oxfam whose aim is to reduce poverty around the world. Did you know there is an estimated £2.7bn worth of unused foreign currency lying around in the UK? – let's find as much of it as we can and support a very worthwhile charity in the meantime.

Peace Doves installation at Southwark Cathedral

Giving, one off, regular and planned

At the end of each service you will find a plate at the back of church for your cash offering. Gift aid envelopes are available if you are a UK taxpayer. You can also give by using the card machine.

If you can, would you consider making a regular gift to the Richmond Team, for the upkeep of our churches and the work of the Team?

Last year we introduced the Parish Giving Scheme (PGS). Many thanks to those of you have joined the scheme. If you are still making regular donations by standing order, envelope or GiveALittle, please do switch to PGS if you are able to. This will help us enormously by reducing the amount of administration and significantly improving our cashflow. If you have any questions, please contact Jackie Harrison or 07747 111525.
